PRINTED BY ROGER CHEW WEIGHTMAN.

1815.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,

February 4th, 1815.

Sir—I have the honor, in obedience to the act of March 3d, 1809, "further to amend the several acts for the establishment and regulation of the treasury, war, and navy departments," to transmit a statement of the moneys paid at the treasury, during the year 1814, for miscellaneous claims not otherwise provided for; and a statement of the contracts for supplies or services made during that year, under direction of the treasury department.

The purchases or payments for supplies made by the collectors of the customs during the year 1813, in relation to the revenue, and to the temporary relief of sick and disabled seamen, have been extracted from their accounts, and statements of the same are also transmitted.

I have the honor to be,
Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
A. J. DALLAS.

The honorable the speaker of the house of representatives.

PAYMENTS made according to law, at the treasury of the United States, during the year 1814, for the discharge of miscellaneous claims not otherwise provided for.

The destruction of vouchers on settled accounts, in the conflagration on the 24th of August last, has prevented this abstract from exhibiting the particular items of former abstracts. This now exhibited is extracted from the treasury statements; and contains the sum total expended by each of the several agents during the year 1813.
